GEORGE GUND III
Chairman of the Board

When you look at the ownership level in the National Hockey League, you see very few people who play the same game that they operate. Maybe they played when they were kids, but not now. George Gund, who, with his brother Gordon, owns the Minnesota team, is an exception to that rule. Gund, 41, played an active role on the ice through last season. What's more, the North Star team is not his only hockey property. Gund is an owner of Sun Valley, Idaho, Ice Skating, Inc., and takes a regular shift on defense for the Sun Valley Suns. Gund's interest in the playing end of the game is not new-found. He played hockey as a youngster in his home town of Cleveland and organized the first team at Western Reserve University. He also played for the Cleveland Falcons in that city's league and for city league teams in Seattle and San Francisco. Gund entered the National Hockey League picture in 1975 when he became part owner of the California Seals. He was instrumental in the move of the California team to Cleveland in 1976 and in the purchase of the team by him and his brother in 1977. It was in June of 1978 when he helped to put together the unprecedented merger of the Minnesota and Cleveland teams and a little over a month later when the Gund brothers assumed 100 per cent control of the North Stars. He serves on the board of the Cleveland Trust Company and is a past Board Member of the Redwood Bank in San Francisco. Along with real estate interests in the Bay Area and Port Angeles, Wash., he has a cattle ranch in Lee, Nev. In addition, he is an importer and distributor of foreign films and chairman of the San Francisco International Film Festival. He was a founding shareholder and past chairman of the Board of the Rusty Scupper Restaurant chain. Gund is a Trustee of the George Gund Foundation. He is also a Trustee of KQED, the Public Broadcasting Station and FM radio station in San Francisco, the San Francisco Art Institute, San Francisco Museum of Art, a member of the Board of Directors of the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame. He is a partner of Gunwyn Ventures, a venture capital company, and Vice Chairman of Gund Investment Corporation. Gund and his wife, Theo, make their home in San Francisco. They are the parents of two boys.

GORDON GUND
Vice Chairman of the Board

Gordon Gund's interest in hockey sprang from his days as a boy at Gorton School, was reinforced at Harvard University where he played defense for the Crimson and continues to this moment at the National Hockey League level.

Gund, 39, joined his brother George, in 1977 in ownership of the Cleveland team and played a key role last summer when the Gunds assumed control of the North Stars after the Minnesota-Cleveland merger.

The expertise shown in completion of the merger is typical of Gund's successful, wide-ranging career in business and public service.

Gund is founder and managing partner of Gunwyn Ventures of Princeton, N.J., and principal owner and general partner of GUS Enterprises, San Francisco. Gunwyn is a firm with investments in several industries. GUS Enterprises, formed in 1969, is involved in all phases of real estate development nationally for its own account. Gordon is a director of several private companies, along with two major regional bank holding companies, CleveTrust Corporation, Cleveland, Ohio and First Florida Banks, Tampa, Florida. He is on the executive committee of both of these bank holding companies and also a director of each of their lead banks. He has taken a leading role in national charitable/philanthropic endeavors. He is treasurer and trustee of the George Gund Foundation in Cleveland which commits to more than $4 million in grants each year and whose purpose is to contribute to human well being and the progress of society in general. In addition, in 1971, he co-founded the National Retinitis Pigmentosa Foundation (RPF) headquartered in Baltimore, Md., and is now Vice Chairman and Trustee of the RPF. This foundation is dedicated to finding a treatment or cure for retinitis pigmentosa and allied degenerative diseases of the retina which impair the vision of many thousands of children and adults in this country alone, often leading to total blindness. This Foundation now has 43 chapters in 28 states and five international affiliates. He is president and trustee of the Gund Collection of Western Art, a travelling collection of 70 works of art, representing some of the most recognized American western artists including Remington, Russell, and Bierstadt.

He received his A.B. in 1961 from Harvard University. Gund and his wife, Lura, make their home in Princeton, N.J. They are the parents of two boys.

JOHN KARR
President

John Karr, third president in the history of the Minnesota North Stars, brings to the position a wealth of management and marketing experience. Karr, 49, has been in the fast lane of business traffic ever since 1953 when he earned his masters degree in marketing from Indiana University. He served on management teams, largely in the planning and marketing areas, for the Burroughs Corp., the Trane Co., Arthur Little, Inc. and the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. before joining the Cole National Corp. as vice president for corporate planning in 1968. Cole National is a retailer and distributor of consumer products with sales of more than $140 million. Karr was named vice president for finance and administration in 1971 and became the first member of operating management other than the president selected to the board of directors. He moved into the National Hockey League during the 1977-78 season as president and chief operating officer of the Cleveland Barons. After completion of the history-making amalgamation of the Cleveland and Minnesota teams, Karr was chosen for the same positions with the North Stars. Karr spent his early years on Michigan's Upper Peninsula in the small town of Allouvez. He later moved to Detroit and attended high school in that city. He served two years in the United States Army after graduation from high school. Karr was graduated in 1952 from Wayne State University where he gained a bachelor of science degree in marketing. Karr and his wife, Mildred, make their home in Edina. They are the parents of four children, two boys and two girls.

WALTER BUSH, JR.
Vice President

Ice hockey has been a major force in the life of Walter Bush, Jr., during most of his 49 years on this earth. That means that Bush is delighted to spend nearly every minute of each day in dealing with the sport he loves best. When control of the North Stars passed from the original owners — Bush was one of them — to George and Gordon Gund, the new operators chose Bush to serve as vice president. They recognized his devotion to hockey, his wide range of knowledge of the sport and its people and his experience as one of the founders of the North Stars and as chief executive of the club. Bush also has served as governor or alternate governor of the team in every year of its existence. He serves with President John Karr and General Manager Lou Nanne in a troika that decides questions of hockey policy.

Bush was born in Minneapolis and has been a resident of the Twin Cities all of his life. He attended school, played hockey and was graduated from Breck School and Dartmouth College and earned his degree in law from the University of Minnesota. Bush was active as a player and executive in semi-pro and international hockey circles, then was one of three men to bring professional hockey, in the form of the Central League, to Minneapolis. That was the first step on the road to an NHL franchise for Minnesota, a drive spearheaded by Bush and realized Oct. 21, 1967 when the North Stars opened at Met Center against California. Bush was chosen winner of the Lester Patrick Trophy in 1973 for his contributions to United States hockey and was named NHL Executive of the Year by the Hockey News in 1972. A long-time activist in amateur hockey at every level, Bush is a director of the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame, secretary of the U.S. Olympic Hockey Committee and a director of the Amateur Hockey Association of the U.S. He is the first U.S. citizen to serve as vice president of the governing committee for the NHL Hall of Fame. Bush and his wife, Mary, make their home in Edina. They are the parents of a girl and two boys.

LOU NANNE
General Manager

The hockey scene in Minnesota has resembled a wasp's nest knocked over by a stick ever since a new era in the sport began last Feb. 10 when Lou Nanne was appointed general manager of the North Stars. The 37-year-old All-American from the University of Minnesota has shown a penchant for perpetual motion ever since that day. He guided the club from the bench during the balance of last season and since then has spent every waking moment transforming the North Stars into a contender and dealing with the multiple changes brought about by the amalgamation of the Minnesota and Cleveland franchises. Nanne has moved in every direction, but two of the key developments under his direction were the drafting and signing of No. 1 draft choice Bobby Smith, and the signing and successful conclusion of arbitration for defenseman Gary Sargent. The intricate manuevering needed to conclude those two deals and others is typical of the Nanne style, one that makes use of his considerable capacity for bargaining. Before he was offered the position of general manager of the North Stars, Nanne was on the other side of the table as one of the leading figures of the National Hockey League Players Association. He was the only performer to play with the North Stars in all of the first 11 years of the team's existence. Over those 11 seasons he played defense most of the time, but had a couple of highly-successful seasons at right wing. A native of Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Nanne played junior hockey with Phil and Tony Esposito, but chose to attend the University of Minnesota where he became the only defenseman to win the WCHA scoring title. A naturalized citizen, he captained the United States Olympic team in 1968. For a number of years he served as color commentator during television broadcasts of the Minnesota high school hockey tournament. He has been and is the most-recognized hockey figure in the state. Nanne and his wife, Francine, live in Edina. They are the parents of a girl, twin boys and a third boy.

HARRY HOWELL
Coach

The man behind the bench for the North Stars is a new, but familiar face. He is Harry Howell, one of the foremost figures in the National Hockey League during the last three decades.

Howell is 45 and spent 21 of those years as one of the NHL's finest defensemen. He played in the National League in the Fifties, Sixties and Seventies, most of the time with the New York Rangers.

He spent 17 seasons with the Rangers, with whom he won the Norris Trophy in 1966-67 as the NHL's best defenseman. He became the youngest captain in the Rangers' history at age 22. His 1,160 games and 17 seasons with the Rangers still stand as club records. He was voted the most popular Ranger three years in succession. Howell missed only 17 games in his first 16 years at New York.

Howell was dealt by the Rangers to Oakland in 1969 and spent a season and a half there before he was sold to Los Angeles. He went on to play two full seasons and part of another for the Kings. He ended his career as an active NHL player at Los Angeles, but played and coached for World Hockey Association teams in New York, Jersey, San Diego and Calgary.

He was hired by the Cleveland Barons as assistant general manager in the summer of 1976, then was appointed general manager of the Cleveland club in the summer of 1977.

During Howell's 21 years in the NHL he played 1,411 games, scored 94 goals and 324 assists for 418 points and amassed 1,298 minutes in penalties during regular season play. In his 38 playoff games he scored three goals and three assists for six points and had 32 penalty minutes.

His games-played total stands fifth on the all-time NHL list. It is exceeded only by Gordie Howe, Alex Delvecchio, John Bucyk and Tim Horton. He also is ranked among all-time NHL career leaders in penalty minutes and assists.

Howell and his wife make their off-season home in Hamilton, Ont., where he was born and raised. They live during hockey season in Edina.

MURRAY OLIVER
Assistant Coach

Murray Oliver spent a third of his National Hockey League career as a player at Minnesota. Now the thinking man's center returns to loan the North Stars' his expertise as a teacher of the refinements of the sport. Oliver, 40, was named this summer to assist Coach Harry Howell, whose career dovetails with Oliver's. Both were born and raised in Hamilton, Ont. Both had long and distinguished careers in the NHL — 16 years in Oliver's case, the last five in Minnesota. Oliver played junior hockey in Hamilton where in 1958 he was named most valuable player in the Ontario Hockey Association. He played his first full NHL season for Detroit in 1959-60 and went on to perform at Boston and Toronto before playing his final five years at Minnesota. Oliver played 1,127 NHL games, scored 274 goals and 454 assists for 728 points and had 319 penalty minutes. His teammates voted him the most valuable North Star in 1971-72 season, the year in which he scored a personal high of 27 goals. Oliver holds the Minnesota record of five assists in one game. He and his wife, Helen, make their home in Edina. They have a son and a daughter.

JOHN MARIUCCI
Assistant General Manager

John Mariucci is THE symbol of hockey in Minnesota. More than any other living person, he stands for the game in this state. The 62-year-old native of Eveleth was a hockey and football star at the University of Minnesota, played five rugged years of defense in the National League and several others in the minors, coached 11 years at the University of Minnesota and joined the North Stars in 1967. He served the team in various positions, largely in the field of collegiate scouting, before Nanne appointed him to his present job. Mariucci coached the 1956 United States Olympic team and has for the last three years led the U.S. team in the World Championships.

GLEN SONMOR
Chief Scout

His appointment as North Stars' Chief Scout brings Sonmor back to the area that has been his home for more than 20 years. He spent five full seasons and part of another as coach at the University of Minnesota and more than five years as general manager and as coach of the Minnesota Fighting Saints of the World Hockey Association. He also earned his bachelor of science degree in physical education at Minnesota. Sonmor, only the second chief scout in the National Hockey League history of the North Stars, makes his home with his wife, Marcia, in Hopkins. Sonmor, born in Moose Jaw, Sask., played junior hockey at Guelph, Ont., and Brandon, Man. The bulk of his professional playing career was spent at Cleveland of the American League, but he did play parts of two NHL seasons, 1953-1954 and 1954-55, with the Rangers. His career on the ice was ended in 1955 when he lost the sight of an eye while playing for Cleveland. John Mariucci of the North Stars, then UM coach, hired Sonmor as freshman coach in 1956. He later coached junior hockey at St. Catherines, Ont., in the AHL at Springfield, Mass., and Ohio State University before returning to the UM as head coach in 1966. Sonmor was named Fighting Saints general manager and coach in 1972 and held either one or both of those positions until that team expired in 1977. He coached Birmingham all of last season.

RIGHT WING

KENT-ERIK ANDERSSON

Height: 6-2 — Weight: 185 lbs.

Age: 27 (May 24, 1951)
Born: Orebro, Sweden
Off-Season Home: Karlstad, Sweden
Right Handed, Shoots Right

Hockey — Those opponents who subscribed to the belief that players from Sweden aren't interested in contact met with an unpleasant surprise last season in the person of Kent-Erik Andersson. The tall, lean Swede ran over more than a few of them enroute to a fine rookie season in the NHL. Although Andersson finished sixth in Minnesota scoring and displayed a nice touch around the net, the best part of his game was as a defensive forward. His defensive percentage of 22.0 was second best on the team and best among full-time performers. Andersson's defensive prowess is not a new development. Two years ago in the World Championships, Andersson served as Phil Esposito's shadow when Sweden met Canada and shut down the Ranger center. He played six seasons in Sweden's major leagues and has performed in 45 games for his country's national team. Like most European-trained players he is deft with the puck and has a nice turn of speed. But unlike some of them, he's worth his weight in the corners.

Personal — Wears contact lenses on the ice and glasses off the ice . . . Kent-Erik and his wife, Lotta, are the parents of a daughter, who will turn three this season . . . Lotta is trained as psychiatric nurse . . . Nicknames are Kenta and Stan. The second is derived from Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy. Their teammates last season dubbed Andersson and Per-Olov Brasar Stan and Ollie . . . Has a good command of English . . . Has one sister . . . Graduated from high school in Sweden.

How Obtained — Signed as free agent, June, 1977.

FRED BARRETT

Height: 6-0; Weight: 194 lbs.
180 cm. — 87 kg.
Age: 28 (Jan. 26, 1950)
Born: Ottawa, Ont.
Off-Season Home: Ottawa, Ont.
Right Handed, Shoots Left

Hockey — Fred Barrett is the first and only man to accomplish the hat trick in winning the Tom Dill Memorial Cup awarded to the Minnesota defenseman voted most proficient by newsmen who cover the North Stars on a regular basis. Three times in seven seasons, 1974-75, 1975-76 and last year, the standup hitter from Ottawa has taken home the silver bowl. The awards are tributes to his defensive skill. Barrett has scored only eight goals in his seven seasons here, but the number he has kept out of his team's goal boggles the imagination. The North Stars' senior citizen (even though he's just 28 years old) plays a steady game, one based on standing up at the blue line and delivering some of the soundest body checks that have been seen at Met Center. Invariably, Barrett's checks are clean, but they get the message across. During his early years with the North Stars, Barrett suffered from a plague of injuries, but seems to have shaken that hex during the last few seasons. In two of the last three years he played all but one of the 80-game schedules.

Personal — Rose to No. 1 North Star in seniority when Lou Nanne became general manager, Tom Reid retired and Dennis O'Brien was traded . . . Barrett and his wife, Lois, are the parents of a boy, 3 . . . Lois has taken sociology courses at the University of Minnesota . . . Nickname is Swoop . . . Played junior hockey for the Toronto Marlboros.

How Obtained — No. 2 choice in 1970 Amateur Draft.

LEFT WING

PER-OLOV (Pear O-lahv) BRASAR (BRAW-sur)

Height: 5-10 — Weight: 180 lbs.
175 cm. — 81 kg.
Age: 27 (Sept. 30, 1950)
Born: Falun, Sweden
Off-Season Home: Leksand, Sweden

Hockey — The only award Oley Brasar didn't win last year was the only one he couldn't win. That was the trophy given to the team's best defenseman. Otherwise, it was a sweep for the man ranked as the best two-way player to emerge from Sweden. Brasar was voted most valuable North Star and No. 1 rookie by his teammates, most popular player by the fans and was overall winner of the season-long Three-Star contest. Brasar played both left wing and center in his first NHL season, performed with distinction at both positions, but scored the bulk of his goals on the left side of a line with center Tim Young and right winger Ron Zanussi. Brasar is extremely adept with the puck, is a fine playmaker and skater, has a sound shot, plays the game in both ends of the rink and doesn't mind the heavy traffic. He doesn't go in search of trouble, but is willing to take a check to make a play. Of course, he was no ordinary rookie last year. Brasar had eight seasons for Leksands in Sweden's Division I behind him and has played 106 games for his country's National team. He received five votes in last season's balloting for the Lady Byng Trophy and was the nominee of the Minnesota Chapter of the Professional Hockey Writer's Association for the NHL's Masterton Trophy.

Personal — Very popular with his teammates . . . Three nicknames: Ollie (fellow-Swede Kent-Erik Andersson is Stan), Oley and Peo (from his initials) . . . Brasar and his wife, Pia, have one daughter, 5 . . . Good knowledge of English . . . Has one brother living in Sweden . . . Teammate at Leksands of ex-North Star Roland Eriksson, who now plays for Vancouver . . . Signed new, extended contract with the North Stars last summer.

How Obtained — Signed as free agent, June, 1977.

BILL BUTTERS

Height: 5-9 — Weight: 192 lbs.
173 cm. — 86 kg.
Age: 27 (Jan. 10, 1951)
Born: St. Paul, Minn.
Off-Season Home: White Bear Lake, Minn.

Hockey — "Bill Butters," said Chief Scout Glen Sonmor, "has a heart as big as this room." Sonmor's arm swept around to encompass a large office. If anyone knows Butters' qualities, it is the man who coached him at the University of Minnesota and for the Fighting Saints when that team performed in the WHA. "You can find a good many defenseman who command greater skills than Billy, but I don't think you find anyone, anywhere who plays the game with more intensity." The speciality of the hard rock from White Bear Lake is clearing away opposing forwards from in front of the net. He's good at it. That was evident after General Manager Lou Nanne acquired him late last season. The crowds in front of the Minnesota goal immediately began to diminish. He accomplished that piece of work playing with a badly-damaged shoulder. Off-season surgery corrected that condition, so Butters should be able to play the role of steam shovel in front of the team with even more vigor this year.

Personal — Came from White Bear Lake High School to captain the University of Minnesota squad . . . Studied physical education in college . . . Toronto was the original professional team to put his name on a contract . . . Bill and his wife, Deborah are the parents of a boy, 3, and a girl, 1 . . . Couldn't play softball for the North Stars this summer because of his surgery, so he turned to umpiring.

How Obtained — Acquired by North Stars in March, 1978 from New England of WHA.

GOALTENDER

GARY EDWARDS

Height: 5-9 — Weight: 165 lbs.
173 cm. — 74 kg.
Age: 31 (Oct. 5, 1947)
Born: Toronto, Ont.
Off-Season Home: Culver City, Calif.

Hockey — If Gary Edwards plays as well for the North Stars as he did four seasons back in Los Angeles, Minnesota will find it owns a gold mine in goaltenders. The small, soft-spoken Edwards ranked as one of the NHL's best in 1974-75 when he recorded a 2.34 goals-against average and three shutouts for the Kings. "Gary's capable, no question about it," said Coach Harry Howell, who had the former first-round draft choice (sixth overall by St. Louis in 1968) at Cleveland last season, "and given sufficient playing time, he'll do a fine job for you." During the last several seasons Edwards has been paired with two of hockey's best goaltenders, Rogie Vachon at Los Angeles and Gilles Meloche at Cleveland where he landed in the 1976-77 season when he was dealt to the Barons with Juha Widing for Garry Simmons and Jim Moxey. Like most smaller goalkeepers, Edwards is an active sort who is not content to sit back and let the shooters try to beat him. Instead, he prides himself on beating them. Plays the angles well and in many ways reflects the style of Glenn Hall, who he played with and who coached him when Edwards was with the St. Louis organization. He has quick reflexes and manages to retain them even after a long layoff.

Personal — Gary and his wife, Kathy, are the parents of a son, 2 . . . Injuries and illnesses have cut into his playing time. They include mononucleosis, a shoulder ailment, a broken finger . . . Attended the University of Toronto . . . One of the better golfers in the NHL . . . Los Angeles' rookie of the year in 1972 and voted the Kings' unsung hero in 1975 . . . A high point was his 3-2 playoff triumph in Boston in the 1976 Stanley Cup quarterfinals. It was the first home loss for the Bruins in 21 games.

How Obtained — Minnesota-Cleveland merger, June, 1978.

MIKE FIDLER

Height: 5-11 — Weight: 195 lbs.
176 cm. — 88 kg.
Age: 22 (Aug. 19, 1956)
Born: Boston, Mass.
Off-Season Home: Charlestown, Mass.
Right Handed, Shoots Left

Hockey — Hard-bitten Mike Fidler is, by any standard of measurement, one of the best U.S.-born players to emerge in the NHL over the last few seasons. After a solid rookie season — 17 goals in 46 games before a broken leg ended his year — the young man from Boston came into his own last winter. He was the No. 2 scorer for Cleveland with 51 points and, more important, led all Barons' forwards with a 5.3 plus percentage. But that didn't end the year for Fidler. He then played 10 games for the United States in the World Championships at Prague and led all American scorers with eight goals and two assists for 10 points and a 17 percent scoring percentage. Lou Nanne and Harry Howell count on Fidler for a big year on the left side where his strength and aggressive play should make for a large improvement in the North Stars' pool of talent at that position. Fidler was chosen by Cleveland in the third round of the 1976 Amateur Draft and assigned to Salt Lake City of the Central League. He proceeded to score 12 goals in 10 games which convinced management his place was in the NHL. He's been there ever since.

Personal — Fidler is single . . . He led Boston University to the ECAC championship and a berth in the NCAA tournament in his senior season . . . Played high school hockey at Malden Catholic . . . Mike's brother, Mark, led Boston U. in scoring last year as a freshman when BU won the NCAA title. Another brother Joe, played a couple games for Rochester of the AHL last season . . . Enjoys spending time on Cape Cod during the summer.

How Obtained — Minnesota-Cleveland merger, June, 1978.

GOALTENDER

PETE LOPRESTI (low-PRESS-tee)

Height: 6-1 — Weight: 200 lbs.
183 cm. — 91 kg.
Age: 24 (May 23, 1954)
Born: Virginia, Minn.
Off-Season Home: Tower, Minn.

Hockey — Pete LoPresti has seen a good many pucks during his first four seasons in the NHL, more, perhaps, than most 24-year-old goaltenders. In fact, many 24-year-old goalies still are toiling in the minors. But LoPresti went almost directly from the rinks of Eveleth, Minn., to the majors. He played a couple of college seasons and 11 games in the American League before the North Stars beckoned. At the age of 20 LoPresti had an NHL season behind him. Now, at 24, he's played 166 NHL games. At the same age Gump Worsley had played only one year in the NHL. At 24 Cesare Maniago was toiling for Hull-Ottawa of the Eastern Professional League. LoPresti has come a long way in a short time, but plenty of action is the best training for a young goalkeeper and that's exactly what he has faced in four seasons here. Through a good portion of last season LoPresti hac played more minutes than any other goalie in the NHL. He wound up with 3,065 minutes in goal, a personal high, and two shutouts, also a personal best. LoPresti was chosen by Minnesota in the third round of the 1974 Amateur Draft on the personal recommendation of John Mariucci.

Personal — Pete and his wife, Terese, make their summer home on the shores of Lake Vermillion in northern Minnesota . . . His dad, Sam, played goal for Chicago in the NHL and still holds the league record of 80 saves in one game . . . The elder LoPresti and Mariucci were teammates at Chicago . . . Named the North Stars' player representative when Lou Nanne became general manager . . . Enjoys fishing and boating . . . Studied business at Denver University . . . Has one brother.

How Obtained — Third-round draft choice in 1974.

LEFT WING/RIGHT WING

AL MAC ADAM

Height: 6-0 — Weight: 180 lbs.

Age: 26 (March 6, 1952)
Born: Charlottetown, P.E.I.
Off-Season Home: Morell, P.E.I.
Right Handed, Shoots Left

Hockey — Of all the players obtained by the North Stars in the merger with Cleveland, none is more important to Minnesota's fortunes than tall, wiry Al MacAdam. The talented forward who plays either wing is one of the best two-way performers in the sport, should pass the 100-goal mark in the NHL this season and, despite a calm exterior, is one of the toughest customers in the league. "Can he go?" said teammate J.P. Parise. "Can he ever." It's not that MacAdam looks for trouble. He had only 42 minutes in penalties last year at Cleveland. But if any foe tries his patience, he's ready and willing to accommodate him. An Amateur Draft choice by Philadelphia (fourth round, 55th overall) in 1972 after an outstanding junior and college career in his native Prince Edward Island, MacAdam played a couple years in the Flyers' system. He was traded to Oakland in 1974 and has been a solid citizen for the Seals and Barons ever since, so solid that he was chosen captain at Cleveland last season, the team's most valuable player in 1975-76 and the Barons' All-Star Game representative in 1976-77. MacAdam, center Dennis Maruk and winger Bob Murdoch made up what was called the 3-M line at Oakland and Cleveland. Although Murdoch is gone, a line of that makeup would be even more fitting in Minnesota.

Personal — Earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in history from the University of Prince Edward Island . . . Al and his wife, Anne, have two daughters, 3 and six months . . . He comes from a family of two brothers and two sisters . . . Played for Charlottetown of the Maritime Junior Hockey League and for the University of PEI . . . Missed part of the 1973-74 season with a broken cheekbone . . . Enjoys reading in his spare time . . . Was dealt by the Flyers to the Seals with Larry Wright for Reg Leach.

How Obtained — Minnesota-Cleveland merger, June, 1978.

KRIS MANERY (ma-NAIR-ee)

180 cm. — 83 kg.
Age: 24 (Sept. 24, 1954)
Born: Leamington, Ont.
Off-Season Home: Leamington, Ont.

Hockey — The expectations Cleveland had for Kris Manery were exceeded early in last season and by the end of the year the Barons' management had every right to crow over the day they signed the young man from the University of Michigan as a free agent. Manery established himself as a goal scorer in the early going and had 16 red lights to his credit halfway through the season. He tailed off slightly in the second half, but still was one of the NHL's leading rookies in the goal column. The University of Michigan graduate also was one of the Barons' leading plus-minus players with a 4.0 percentage and led Cleveland with six first goals of the game and four proximate (brought team within one goal) scores. Manery is one of the better players to emerge from the Western Collegiate Hockey Association in the past several seasons. He played four years for the Wolverines, made the All-WCHA team in his senior year and led his club to the finals of the NCAA tournament in that same senior season. He is a player with considerable self-discipline, one who plays the game with wisdom in his own end. That style is reflected in his plus-minus percentage, one of the few that was on the plus side among the Cleveland forwards.

Personal — Manery certainly didn't take a snap course in college. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in zoology . . . His brother, Randy, plays defense for Los Angeles . . . Teaches in a Michigan hockey school in the off-season . . . Enjoys playing golf . . . Holds the Michigan record of 111 career goals and played 163 straight games for the Wolverines . . . Played Junior C hockey in his home town of Leamington, Ont.

Age: 22 (Nov. 17, 1955)
Born: Toronto, Ont.
Off-Season Home: Akron, Ohio
Right Handed, Shoots Left

Hockey — You'd better believe that a bunch of NHL scouts have been kicking themselves ever since Dennis Maruk went 20 selections before he was chosen by California 21st overall during the 1975 Amateur Draft. Ever since, Maruk has played as if he should have been chosen first overall that year. Size was the scouting fraternity's rap against Maruk, but it hasn't made one bit of difference to the stocky performer. He's been willing to pay the price and take the punishment in order to make plays and score goals. That attitude has paid off with seasons on 30, 28 and 36 goals and 62, 78 and 71 points. He set the NHL record of shorthanded goals by a rookie when he connected five times in 1975-76. His 62 points in that same season was a record for the Oakland-Cleveland franchise. Maruk's style and performance are a continuation of his play for London, Ont., of the OHA junior circuit. His 145 points there in his final junior season broke what was then a record held by Marcel Dionne and helped win him the Red Tilson Trophy awarded to the OHA's Most Valuable player. Maruk was the man in the middle of Cleveland's 3-M Line that also featured wingers Al MacAdam and Bob Murdoch. He has two four-goal games to his credit.

Personal — Maruk's wife, Joni Lee, is a registered nurse . . . He comes from a family of eight brothers and sisters . . . Enjoys playing tennis . . . Works at hockey schools in the off-season . . . Scored six goals for Team Canada in the 1978 World Championships.

DEFENSE

BRAD MAXWELL

Height: 6-2 — Weight: 181 lbs
185 cm. — 81 kg.
Age: 21 (July 8, 1957)
Born: Brandon, Man.
Off-Season Home: Bloomington, Minn.
Left Handed, Shoots Right

Hockey — Brad Maxwell scored more power-play goals (12) than any other defenseman in the NHL last season, more goals (18) than any defenseman in the history of the North Stars, as many points (47) as any defenseman ever for the North Stars. To say that the team's No. 1 choice in the 1977 Amateur Draft had a good year on offense is akin to saying that Proposition 13 made a good showing in California. Another measure of Maxwell's effectiveness on the power play: Guy Lafleur scored only three more goals than him when his team had an advantage. Maxwell uses a booming, accurate shot from the right point for many of his goals, but is not limited to that weapon. He has a nice move to the outside from the blue line that often enables him to beat the first man and slip through for a 25 or 30-foot attempt. The youngster also is capable of end-to-end rushes, but held back somewhat in that area during his rookie season. Though he can do it all on offense, Maxwell realizes his defensive game could stand improvement and is looking forward to playing under Coach Harry Howell, a master on defense during his more than 20 years in the NHL.

Personal — Maxwell was married during the summer. His wife's name is Cathy. The romance first bloomed when he was playing junior hockey in Bellingham, Wash. . . . Captain of his 1977 Memorial Cup-winning junior team in New Westminster, B.C. . . . Scored the Cup-winning goal for that squad on an end-to-end rush . . . His sister, Rhonda, is married to another No. 1 draft choice, defenseman Rick Lapointe, chosen by Detroit in 1975 . . . Maxie was seventh pick overall in 1977 . . . A five-handicap golfer.

How Obtained — No. 1 choice in 1977 Amateur Draft.

Hockey — The wait for Bryan Maxwell to become a North Star was a long one — more than three years long — but as it turned out, the wait was worth it. Maxie was the North Stars' first-round choice (fourth overall) in the 1975 Amateur Draft. However, he chose to cast his lot with the World Hockey Association and stopped off in such places as Cincinnati, Cleveland and New England before making the move to Minnesota in February of last season. To say he was a hit in the 18 games he played before he broke a bone in his hand on the head of a Los Angeles player is a mild understatement. Maxwell showed he had the toughness needed on the Minnesota blue line, the ability to play the role of policeman. He also showed an overall game that made him, in that brief period, the No. 1 plus-player on the squad. Maxwell's plus percentage of 17.7 was made up of 47.5 per cent on offense, 29.8 per cent on defense. Maxwell played junior hockey for Medicine Hat of the Western Canada Junior League and logged 288 minutes in penalties during his final season with the Tigers.

Personal — Bryan's wife is named Debbie . . . Hard hitter on the North Stars' summer softball team . . . Has five brothers and one sister . . . His father played hockey with the North Stars' Jack Gordon . . . Enjoys playing and watching baseball and is a long-time fan of the Los Angeles Dodgers . . . Favorite food is pasta.

How Obtained — First-round draft choice in 1975, cleared WHA waivers in February, 1978.

Off-Season Home: Toronto, Ont.

Hockey — While Jim McKenny likely could win a starring role on Saturday Night Live, he'd rather spend a good many of his Saturday nights in the green and gold uniform of the Minnesota North Stars. The NHL's No. 1 wit is one of the league's best offensive defensemen and, given the youthful complexion of the Minnesota defense, looms as a steadying influence on the youthful blueliners. McKenny is only 31 but has been in professional hockey for 12 seasons, eight of them as a Toronto Maple Leaf. He is a fine rushing defenseman, a clever stickhandler and an elusive skater. During this years with the Maple Leafs, he often worked the right point position on the Toronto power play where his right-handed shot accounted for 10 or more goals in five different seasons.

Personal — Jim and his wife, Christine, are the parents of a girl, 12, and a boy, 8 . . . Needs only six games for a milestone of 600 in the NHL . . . Has taken psychology courses at Carleton University . . . Signed to his first professional contract by King Clancy . . . Won OHA all-star honors twice . . . Served as Toronto's representative to the NHL Players Association.

How Obtained — Purchased by Minnesota from Toronto, March, 1978 (deal did not become effective until the end of the 1977-78 season).

Age: 28 (July 12, 1950)
Born: Montreal, Que.
Off-Season Home: Montreal, Que.

Hockey — Though his goals-against average does not reflect it, there is no question that Gilles Meloche is one of the NHL's premier goalkeepers. People speak of Meloche in the same breath as Ken Dryden or Rogie Vachon. He's that good, but it has been his fate to play goal for teams at California and Cleveland that were less than overpowering. The man with the swift glove hand recorded his best goals-against, 3.32, in his first NHL season back in 1971-72 when he won West Division Sporting News Rookie of the Year honors for California's Seals. That same first season he posted a career high four shutouts and has a lifetime total of 11 goose eggs. You usually don't think of goalies as playmakers, but Meloche qualifies for the title. He set the NHL record of six assists in one season in 1974-75 and is co-holder of the league record of two in one game. Meloche played junior hockey for Verdun, Que., of the Quebec League and was selected by Chicago in the fifth round of the 1970 Amateur Draft. After a season in the International League and a couple cups of coffee in Chicago he was traded to California in 1971 to start the seven-year stay at California and Cleveland that made him the senior citizen of that portable franchise.

Personal — His brother, Denis, played center at Philadelphia and Vancouver in the WHA . . . Meloche comes from a family of four brothers and one sister . . . Missed part of the 1973-74 season after suffering severed tendons in his hand . . . An ardent golfer . . . Gilles and his wife, Nicole, are the parents of a boy, 2 . . . Says his greatest NHL thrill was his first shutout.

How Obtained — Minnesota-Cleveland merger, June, 1978.

Age: 36 (Dec. 11, 1941)
Born: Smooth Rock Falls, Ont.
Off-Season Home: Fort Salonga, N.Y.

Hockey — One of Minnesota's most popular, personable and talented players returns to Met Center this year in the person of J.P. Parise. The years that the likeable French-Canadian played at Minnesota coincide with the best years of the life of this franchise — and that is no coincidence. Actually, this is the third time around in Minnesota for Parise. He played two years here for the CHL team in Minnesota. But wherever he's played it has been in the same slam-bang style. Very little fancy-dan stuff for Parise. He grinds it out in the corners and in front of the net. For years he has been called one of the best corner men in the NHL. That kind of work led to five Stanley Cup playoff appearances with the North Stars and three more with the Islanders where he was traded halfway through the 1974-75 season. He eventually went from the Islanders to Cleveland midway through last year.

Personal — Represented the North Stars in the 1970 and 1973 All-Star games . . . Played for Team Canada in the first Canada-Soviet Union series in 1972 . . . J.P. and his wife, Donna, have purchased a home in Bloomington . . . Voted most valuable North Star for the 1969-70 season and tied for the most popular North Star award for 1967-68 . . .

How Obtained — Minnesota-Cleveland merger, June, 1978.

Age: 20 (Aug. 16, 1958)
Born: Toronto, Ont.
Off-Season Home: Scarborough, Ont.

Hockey — People who know called Steve Payne the best defensive forward in junior hockey last season. The description is flattering, but it doesn't do justice to the North Stars' No. 2 draft selection. He's an excellent defensive player, but he's just as good, if not better, in the attacking end. His size and great upper body strength make him a force along the boards, in front of the net and in the corners, from where he normally emerges with the puck. He's no headhunter, but when a foe gets in his way, he simply bowls him over. Payne also uses his intelligence to great advantage, especially in deciding where and when to shoot the puck. His skating is deceptive. It appears he's gliding along at a normal pace when suddenly he accelerates and pulls away from his checker. Those attributes contributed to his 57 goals in 52 games, to his two five-goal games and one four-goal game and to his 14 power-play tallies. Payne played with center Bob Smith and right winger Tim Higgins last year at Ottawa. Smith was taken No. 1 overall by Minnesota, Higgins No. 10 overall by Chicago and Payne No. 19 overall by Minnesota.

Personal — Has taken a course in biology at Carleton University . . . Single . . . Played on the 1977 Memorial Cup runnerup team . . . Has one brother, one sister . . . Both his brother and his father played hockey . . . Is a hockey school instructor in the off-season . . . Third team all-star left winger in the OHA last season . . . Voted most under-rated player in the OHA . . . Missed 16 games last season with a broken bone in his right hand.

How Obtained — No. 2 choice in 1978 Amateur Draft.

Hockey — There's no way Alex Pirus was as happy after his second season in the NHL as he was at the completion of his rookie year. Pirus was one of four Minnesota freshmen to score 20 or more goals in 1976-77. But last year he scored nine for the North Stars before playing the last fourth of the season at Fort Worth. The trip to Texas seemed to agree with him. He scored a goal every other game (nine in 18) and continued his effective play while helping Forth Worth to the Adams Cup championship. Pirus is a large, strong right winger with a heavy shot. He's a powerful straight-ahead skater and was one of Minnesota's harder hitting forwards. Pirus can take a whack and give it back. He was suckered early in the season at Boston by Bruins forward John Wensink and absorbed a number of punches. But Pirus evened the score between the two when the teams met again in Minnesota. A streaky goalscorer, he scored just one in his first 28 games of his rookie season, then 19 more in his last 52 games.

Personal — Attended Notre Dame University where he obtained his degree in Finance this past summer. Pirus maintained a B-plus average in college . . . Not married . . . The year he scored 20 goals, the 20th went in on the last day of the regular season . . . Of Ukrainian descent.

Age: 25 (Dec. 19, 1952)
Born: Hibbing, Minn.

Hockey — "Mike Polich is a game-breaker, that's what he is," said Chief Scout Glen Sonmor, who originally recruited the young man from Minnesota's Iron Range to the University of Minnesota and coached him there for a short span of time. "He's explosive," continued Sonmor, "the kind of player you want out there with the score tied and a couple of minutes to play." Polich plays both left wing and center and even when he's at wing, he's often used on faceoffs because of his great ability in that situation. Further, he's an excellent penalty killer. Those attributes make up the reason General Manager Lou Nanne signed him as a free agent after Polich played out his option with Montreal this past season. Polich was signed by the Canadiens after he finished his eligibility at the University of Minnesota. He spent three years in the Montreal system, most of them with Nova Scotia of the AHL. Polich has one claim to fame that can't be matched by any other player on the Minnesota roster. His name is on the Stanley Cup. He played five games for the Canadiens in the Cup finals when Montreal was enroute to it 1977 championship.

Personal — Polich was captain of the Nova Scotia team last winter . . . Led the University of Minnesota to its first NCAA title in 1974 . . . Mike's wife is named Denise . . . Hockey — Jim Roberts' first two years in the Minnesota organization have followed similar patterns, patterns that don't displease the young left winger, but ones that he would prefer to change. Each year Roberts has emerged from training camp to find a ticket to the North Stars' farm team waiting for him. But each year his play — at New Haven and at Fort Worth — has been so exemplary that he has been called back to the parent team. This year Roberts would enjoy performing with Minnesota from start to finish. The husky forward, a good defensive player and hard-hitting checker, is strong and uses his 199 pounds to good effect in front of the net and along the boards. He led the North Stars last year in percentage of important points with an 83.3 per cent rating to his credit. An accurate shot with a quick release.

Personal — Roberts was married during the summertime. His wife's name is Susan . . . No relation to the St. Louis player of the same name who retired after last season . . . Another of the North Stars who played junior hockey for Ottawa in the Ontario Hockey Association . . . Has two sisters and one brother . . . Spent summers as a youngster working on the family farm.

Hockey — It was a blue-ribbon day last summer when the North Stars announced that they had signed Gary Sargent, considered by many the best United States-born player in the game. "One of the eight best defensemen in the NHL," says General Manager Lou Nanne in evaluating the talent of this fearless, well-muscled defender from northern Minnesota. A star for Team USA in the 1976 Canada Cup tournament, Sargent matured into Los Angeles' best defenseman in only his second season in the league. He knows how to use the body when it is needed yet takes no foolish penalties. He has an excellent shot — 29 career NHL goals. He is an unselfish passer — 90 career NHL assists. Best of all, his plus-minus rating of 10.5 per cent was tops for any Los Angeles defenseman last season and second overall on the Kings' roster. It's small wonder that Nanne said the decision by the full-blooded Chippewa Indian to sign with the North Stars was the key to the club's success on defense. Sargent leaves Los Angeles with the team's records for goals (14) for assists (40) and for points (54) in one season and was voted the Kings' best defenseman. He was chosen by the Kings in the third round of the 1974 Amateur Draft.

Hockey — No North Star has been more consistent over the last two seasons than the club's 1976 No. 1 Amateur Draft choice, Glen Sharpley. Sharpley broke into the NHL with 25 goals and 57 points in 1976-77 and almost duplicated that showing with 22 goals and 55 points last year. The key to Sharpley's success is plain hard work. No one puts in more effort on each end of the ice than this young man from Toronto. While he is a very effective offensive performer, Sharpley is probably even more valuable because of his skillful play on defense. Most of the time the line he centers is assigned the other club's No. 1 attacking unit. Another plus for Sharpley is his talent for penalty killing, a talent that was best exploited late last season when he was teamed with Ole Brasar. He has a penchant for scoring key goals. He scored six game winners two years ago and three more last season to lead the club both times. His three game-tieing tallies also were best among the North Stars in 1977-78.

Personal — Unmarried but shares his Apple Valley home with a Doberman named Butcher . . . Third player taken overall in the 1976 Amateur Draft . . . Played junior hockey for Hull in the Quebec League . . . Nickname is Sharps . . . Kirk, one of his three brothers, was a City of Toronto all-star football player . . . Also plays right wing . . . Coached at Hull by Marcel Pronovost, currently head coach at Buffalo.

How Obtained — First round choice in 1976 Amateur Draft.

Born: North Sydney, N.S.

Hockey — There's no doubt in the minds of most that Bobby Smith is the best rookie ever to place his name on a Minnesota contract. The tall, poised articulate young man from Ottawa broke all-time records in the Ontario Hockey Association last winter when he scored 69 goals and 123 assists for 192 points. He was unanimous choice of NHL Central Scouting as No. 1 Amateur Draft selection and, needless to say, the same choice in the hearts and minds of the North Stars' staff. He is an excellent skater who has the agility and coordination of a smaller man. He has exceptional hockey sense, handles the puck well, passes well, scores goals, positions himself well and anticipates defensively. Smith has 37-inch arms. Add those arms to a 6-foot-4 body and you have a reach that, in the words of former teammate Jim Roberts, "seems to cover half the rink." These attributes helped him score 30 power-play goals, eight game-winning goals and 37 clutch goals last season and played a role in his 17 multi-goal games, his four hat tricks and his one game with five goals — all five on the power play. Smith has played both center and left wing, but performed all of last season at center.

Personal — His sister, Mary Lou, won a national age group tennis title in Canada. His brother, Dan, played football for McGill University's Canadian champs . . . Bob is an outstanding tennis player . . . Hopes eventually to become a doctor . . . Smith is employed by Marigold Dairy in a promotional role . . . Quote from his junior coach, Brian Kilrea: "If you could pick your own son, you would pick somebody like Bob Smith." . . . Made more than 100 visits to hospitals and nursing homes last season . . . Ranked high in his high school graduating class and has taken courses in chemistry and psychology at Ottawa University . . . One of many Ottawa 67s graduates to play for Minnesota . . . Smith is not married . . . Won the Red Tilson Trophy as the OHA's most valuable player and the CCM Award as the best junior player in all of Canada . . . Two years ago made the Memorial Cup All-Star team and named most sportsmanlike player at the Memorial Cup tournament.

How Obtained — No. 1 overall draft choice in 1978.

GREG SMITH

Height: 6-0 — Weight: 195 lbs.
180 cm. — 88 kg.
Age: 23 (July 8, 1955)
Born: Ponoka, Alta.
Off-Season Home: Ponoka, Alta.

Hockey — Greg Smith has the equipment, mental and physical, to become one of the best defensemen ever to pull on a Minnesota sweater. He's big. He's young. He's smart. He plays a rugged yet controlled game. He has a good shot and is smart with the puck. Smith was one of 10 players protected by Lou Nanne when the NHL held its Dispersal Draft after the Minnesota-Cleveland amalgamation. Small wonder since Nanne regards the young man from Alberta as one of the finest defensive prospects in the business. A fourth-round draft choice of California in 1975, Smith completed his eligibility at Colorado College, then moved directly into the NHL with the Golden Seals in the 1976-77 season. His 30 assists last winter were the most by any Cleveland defenseman and more than all but two Barons forwards. His 85.7 percentage of important goals ranked second on the club. His offensive percentage of 50.5 was the best of any Baron.

Personal — Greg and his wife, Lori, were married just before the 1977-78 season. Lori also comes from Ponoka, Alta., located between Edmonton and Calgary . . . Greg's brothers, Brian and Kelly, both play minor hockey in Ponoka . . . Studied business administration at Colorado College . . . No relation to the other Minnesota Smith, center Bobby . . . Greg comes from a family of three brothers and one sister . . . Played junior hockey in Calgary . . . Enjoys the music of Fleetwood Mac.

How Obtained — Minnesota-Cleveland merger, June, 1978.

Hockey — Tim Young's point production resembled a roller coaster during his first three years in the NHL. It went from 51 to 95 to 58. But people who follow the North Stars feel that the slender, talented center is ready to return to the pattern of 1976-77 when he was the No. 5 scorer in the league. What's more, Young played a sound second half of last season, performing as well or better than he ever has and paving the way for excellent years by his wingers, Per-Olov Brasar on the left side and Ron Zanussi on the right. Young's game is playmaking. Every winger he's played with has seen his goal production rise dramatically — and has often watched it fall just as swiftly when he parted company with Young. Young's 95 points and 66 assists in 1976-77 were the most ever scored by a North Star. During two of his first three years at Minnesota, Young has led the club in scoring. He arrived at Minnesota courtesy of one of the better trades in the team's history. Young was Los Angeles' No. 1 choice in the 1975 Amateur Draft, but was dealt to Minnesota in exchange for a second-round pick in the 1976 Draft. After a brief, high-scoring start in the American League, Young came up to Minnesota in 1975-76 and has been a fixture since.

Personal — Voted Minnesota's most valuable player by his teammates after the 1976-77 season . . . His 95-point season was the second best ever by a second-year player in the NHL . . . Played for the Campbell Conference in the 1977 All-Star Game . . . Young is not married . . . One of many Minnesota performers to play junior hockey in Ottawa . . . Scored 163 points in his last junior season . . . Plays softball with the North Stars' team during the off-season . . . Coached as a junior by ex-North Star Leo Boivin . . . Has two brothers and a sister.

How Obtained — From Los Angeles for second-round 1976 draft choice in June, 1975.

Hockey — You can't measure character in the black and white of statistics, but that's what Tom Younghans adds to the Minnesota hockey club. "The presence of Tommy on the ice, on the bench or in the dressing rooms means a lot to a team," says General Manager Lou Nanne, who has known the young Minnesotan both as a teammate and as a coach. That's not to say Younghans is short of other qualities. He's gifted with a hard shot, is an excellent penalty killer and a determined checker. Both as a collegian and as a professional, he has had a knack of scoring shorthanded goals. He scored four in his senior season at the University of Minnesota and three more in his first professional season. Another quality of Younghans is his versatility. He can play all three forward positions, but seems to operate best at right wing. Younghans started last season at the North Stars' farm in Fort Worth, but returned to Minnesota after only six games and spent the balance of the season with the National League team.

Personal — Tom was married late this summer. His wife's name is Sherry . . . He played at St. Agnes High School and St. Mary's College in Winona, Minn., before transferring to the University of Minnesota. Younghans also attended school at River Falls (Wis.) State College . . . Worked at a hockey school in northern Minnesota last summer . . . Played for the United States in the last three World Championship tournaments . . . Helped his UM team to the NCAA championship in his senior season.

How Obtained — Signed as free agent in June, 1976.

RON ZANUSSI (zah-NEW-see)

Height: 5-11 — Weight: 180 lbs.
176 cm. — 82 kg.
Age: 22 (Aug. 31, 1956)
Born: Toronto, Ont.
Off-Season Home: West Hill, Ont.

Hockey — The most pleasant surprise of last year's season in Minnesota's lineup was Ron Zanussi, the hard-rock right winger from Toronto by way of London, Ont. The informed opinion concerning Zanussi last year was that he had had a brilliant introduction to the professional ranks in 1976-77 at Fort Wayne of the IHL, but that he might still be a year away from the NHL. Therefore, he started the season at Fort Worth in the CHL. Twelve games into the season he was called back to Minnesota and played the balance of the season for the North Stars. He performed late in the season on a line with center Tim Young and left winger Per-Olov Brasar that was Minnesota's most effective combination. Throughout the year Zanussi's heart and desire were in evidence every time he took the ice. He used his body most effectively and played no favorites when handing out hits. He hit them all, the lean the short and the tall — and the mean and large, too. His shooting percentage of 15.5 was the best of returning Minnesota forwards. Though he didn't come close to his IHL total of 53 goals in 77 games, Zanussi showed a deft touch around the net and reminded more than one observer of the younger days of another North Star, J.P. Parise.

Personal — Nickname is Zoo . . . He was named IHL Rookie of the Year in 1976-77 . . . Broke the team scoring record for first-year players when he was at Fort Wayne . . . Has two brothers . . . No relation to Joe Zanussi, who also has seen action in the NHL . . . Missed a large chunk of his final junior season at London because of a knee injury and therefore went later than expected in the Amateur Draft . . . Enjoys Italian food.

How Obtained — Third-round draft choice in 1976.

NORTH STARS' TRAINERS

Trainer
DICK ROSE

Assistant Trainer
DENNIS KOVACH

Change has been the rule rather than the exception in the Minnesota organization during the last 12 months. But there's one area that has been untouched by the turbulence. That island of stability is the staff of trainer Dick Rose and assistant trainer Dennis Kovach. This is Rose's ninth season with the North Stars and the seventh for Kovach. For well more than half of the team's existence the two have handled its training chores. That's stability. Rose, 40, was an outstanding high school athlete in St. Paul. He served as trainer for the United States Olympic and National teams before he joined the North Stars. He has three times been honored by selection as trainer for the NHL All-Star game. Kovach, 32, comes from Ohio where he was graduated from Marietta College. While in the U.S. Army, he served as a combat medic and as a physical therapy specialist. Before he came to the North Stars, Kovach's athletic training experience included stays at Marietta, at West Point and with the Cleveland Barons of the AHL. Neither Rose nor Kovach is married. Rose makes his home in Roseville, Kovach in Minneapolis.

TELEVISION AND RADIO TEAMS

The first shift of electronic coverage during the North Stars' entire NHL history took place this year when the team moved its radio broadcasts to KSTP-AM (1500).

The powerful Twin Cities station will carry all 80 regular-season games, five exhibition contests and all playoff games.

While the spot on the dial is different, the voice is the same. Al Shaver, voice of the North Stars, is back for his 12th season behind the mike. Shaver is generally-recognized as one of the very best in his business of calling the action.

WTCN-TV is the only outlet that has carried the North Stars' broadcasts in every season. Channel 11 will once again televise 25 Minnesota games, 22 on the road, three at home. The tested team of play-by-play man Joe Boyle and color commentator Roger Buxton will return on WTCN-TV.
